From the Pastor's Desk

Today is the Fourth Sunday of the Easter Season. As lengthy as last Sunday's gospel was, this Sunday's is very short. But there is much packed into it: Jesus, the shepherd of the sheep, knows the sheep, leads them, they hear his voice, he promises them eternal life, and assures them that he has them in his hand, and in the Father's hand as well. And he also states: "The Father and I are one." There is so much to consider. God is so good.

By the time you read this, the Cardinals of the Church in Rome may have already elected the new Holy Father, but since I am writing this on Monday (May 5th), the Conclave has not even started yet. So, may God's holy will be done.

Today is Mother's Day, an opportunity for me to wish all the mothers, grandmothers, godmothers and those who take their place an abundance of God's blessings. May is also a month to honor our Blessed Mother, Mary. We are doing that by publicly praying the Rosary each evening at or around 7:00 pm in the lower church. We'll let you know if we need to move it to another place. Please join us if your schedule permits.

This past Friday, I joined Bishop Brennan, other pastors, and some 821 Eighth Grade students from all over the diocese (including our school) in a special Graduation Mass at St. Joseph Co-Cathedral. I can't remember if the diocese ever sponsored such a Mass in the past. Looking ahead to next Sunday, we welcome Bishop Brennan to our parish to celebrate the 100th anniversary of our School with us. Bishop will celebrate a special 4:00 pm Mass in the upper church to which we are all invited. Alumni, former principals, teachers, and representatives of the Grey Nuns who used to teach here will join the current Principal, teachers, parents and students – and the Bishop – in this wonderful, historic event. There is a dinner to follow the Mass. I hope you are planning to purchase a ticket (or tickets) to come.

As you know, we have started to use a new Missalette and Hymnal - Unidos en Cristo / United in Christ, and I hope that you like it. I can see that donations to help allay the cost of these new hymnals and missalettes are coming in. Can you help us, too? Please put your donation in an envelope marked with your name/address and "Hymnal Offering" clearly visible and drop it in the collection basket at Mass or bring it to the parish office (rectory) or give it to one of the priests or deacons. God bless you.

The Easter season is a great time to join your fellow parishioners who are pledging to the 2025 Annual Catholic Appeal. If you did not receive a personal invitation in the mail from the Bishop or the Appeal office, please notice that pledge envelopes are placed around the church. This weekend – May 10-11, we will conduct another Direct In-Pew Request (at the Masses I missed last weekend) to participate in the Appeal. I hope you can and will make a generous pledge/gift to this year's Appeal. A new report – May 5 - has come in, so I refer you to it elsewhere in this Bulletin. Please see our parish website and Facebook page for a link to the 2025 ACA video. You will also find the QR code included in this Bulletin to make an electronic pledge.

Finally, last week I mentioned that I will be moving to the parish of St. Gregory the Great, in Bellerose, at the end of June/early July. For those interested, the parish address is 242-20 88th Avenue, Bellerose, NY 11426. I guess I should think about packing. But for now, let me say: May God bless you all. -- Msgr. Hoppe

Desde el escritorio del pastor

Hoy es el cuarto domingo del Tiempo de Pascua. Si bien el evangelio del domingo pasado fue extenso, el de este domingo es muy breve. Pero está repleto de significados: Jesús, el pastor de las ovejas, las conoce, las guía, ellas escuchan su voz, les promete la vida eterna y les asegura que las tiene en su mano, y también en la mano del Padre. Y también afirma: «El Padre y yo somos uno». Hay mucho que considerar. Dios es tan bueno.

Para cuando lean esto, puede que los cardenales de la Iglesia en Roma ya hayan elegido al nuevo Santo Padre, pero como escribo esto el lunes (5 de mayo), el Cónclave ni siquiera ha comenzado.

Así que, que se haga la santa voluntad de Dios.

Hoy es el Día de las Madres, una oportunidad para desearles a todas las madres, abuelas, madrinas y a quienes las relevan, abundantes bendiciones de Dios. Mayo también es un mes para honrar a nuestra Santísima Madre, María. Lo estamos haciendo rezando públicamente el Rosario todas las noches alrededor de las 7:00 p. m. en la iglesia de abajo. Les avisaremos si necesitamos cambiarlo a otro lugar. Por favor, únense a nosotros si su horario lo permite.

El viernes pasado, me uní al Obispo Brennan, otros párrocos y unos 821 estudiantes de octavo grado de toda la diócesis (incluyendo nuestra escuela) en una Misa especial de Graduación en la Concatedral de San José. No recuerdo si la diócesis alguna vez patrocinó una Misa de este tipo. De cara al próximo domingo, le damos la bienvenida al Obispo Brennan a nuestra parroquia para celebrar con nosotros el centenario de nuestra escuela. El Obispo celebrará una Misa especial a las 4:00 p. m. en la iglesia de arriba, a la que todos estamos invitados. Exalumnos, exdirectores, maestros y representantes de las Monjas Grises que solían enseñar aquí se unirán al actual director, maestros, padres y estudiantes, y al Obispo, en este maravilloso e histórico evento. Habrá una cena después de la misa. Espero que estén pensando en comprar una o varias entradas para venir.

Como saben, hemos empezado a usar un nuevo Misalito e Himnario: Unidos en Cristo, y espero que les guste. Veo que están llegando donaciones para ayudar a cubrir el costo de estos nuevos himnarios y misales. ¿Nos pueden ayudar también? Por favor, coloquen su donación en un sobre con su nombre, dirección y la palabra "Ofrenda para el Himnario" claramente visible y deposítela en la canasta de la misa, llévenla a la oficina parroquial (rectoría) o entréguela a uno de los sacerdotes o diáconos. Que Dios los bendiga.

La Pascua es un buen momento para unirse a sus feligreses que se están comprometiendo a la Campaña Católica Anual de 2025. Si no recibieron una invitación personal por correo del obispo o de la oficina de la Campaña, tengan en cuenta que hay sobres de compromiso por toda la iglesia. Este fin de semana, 10 y 11 de mayo, realizaremos otra Solicitud Directa desde las Bancas (en las Misas que me perdí el fin de semana pasado) para participar en la Campaña. Espero que puedan y quieran hacer una generosa donación para la Campaña de este año. Ya hemos recibido un nuevo informe (el 5 de mayo), así que los remito a él en otra parte de este Boletín. Por favor, visiten el sitio web de nuestra parroquia y nuestra página de Facebook para obtener el enlace al video de la Campaña ACA 2025. También encontrarán el código QR incluido en este Boletín para hacer una donación electrónica.

*Por último, la semana pasada mencioné que me mudaré a la parroquia de San Gregorio Magno, en Bellerose, a finales de junio o principios de julio. Para quienes estén interesados, la dirección de la parroquia es 242-20 88th Avenue, Bellerose, NY 11426. Creo que debería pensar en empacar. Pero por ahora, permítanme decirles: Que Dios los bendiga a todos. -- Mons. Hoppe
