NOVENA TO ST. JOAN OF ARC

Glorious St. Joan of Arc, Filled with compassion, For those who invoke you, Filled with love For those who suffer, Heavily laden With the weight of my troubles, I kneel at your feet and humbly beg you, To take my present need, Under your special protection.

[State your intention(s) here...]

Grant to recommend it, To the Blessed Virgin Mary, And lay it before the throne of Jesus. Cease not to intercede for me, Until my request is granted.
Above all, obtain for me, The grace to one day, Meet God face to face, And with you and Mary, And all the angels and saints, Praise Him through all eternity.

O most powerful Saint Joan, Do not let me lose my soul, But obtain for me the grace Of winning my way to heaven, Forever and ever. AMEN

Our Father Hail Mary Glory Be

From the Pastor's Desk

Today is the Sixth Sunday of the Easter Season. In the gospel for today's Mass, from St. John, Jesus says: "Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him... Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid." I must say I find these words of Jesus very comforting. Jesus and his Father love me and want to spend their time with me – and you! Let's consider how our lives have been affected by this truth.

Pope Leo XIV celebrated his Inaugural Mass at St. Peter's last Sunday. I share with you the closing remarks from his rather short homily: "With the light and the strength of the Holy Spirit, let us build a Church founded on God's love, a sign of unity, a missionary Church that opens its arms to the world, proclaims the word, allows itself to be made "restless" by history, and becomes a leaven of harmony for humanity. Together, as one people, as brothers and sisters, let us walk towards God and love one another." May God bless our new Pope with holiness, health and strength for his unique ministry as chief shepherd of the Church.

Also last Sunday, our School celebrated its 100th Anniversary with a Mass celebrated by our Bishop, Robert Brennan, and an enjoyable and lavish dinner right here in the auditorium/gym. The Bishop blessed the school's new STEM lab and joined us for dinner and the delightful entertainment and extras that filled out the program. Our special guests, in addition to the Bishop, were members of the Grey Nuns of the Sacred Heart, who made a long trip from Pennsylvania to be with us. Msgr. John McGuirl, a former pastor, was among the invited guests, as was the newly appointed pastor, Fr. Christopher Heanue. All in all, it was a wonderful evening. My deepest thanks to Mrs. Mosejczuk, Principal extraordinaire, for pulling all the elements together.

Last Thursday, we began the Novena prayers for St. Joan of Arc, the patron of our parish, leading up to our observance of her feast on Friday, May 30th. I'm looking forward to celebrating our shared faith with the 6:00 pm Mass, followed by a dinner/dance in our auditorium/gym, named for our second pastor, Msgr. John S. Boylan. Bring your dancing shoes. We are honored to have Bishop Neil Tiedemann as the main celebrant at our special Mass.

I repeat what I wrote last Sunday. Please support the 2025 Annual Catholic Appeal. How? By your prayers and a generous pledge-gift. This annual diocesan appeal funds eight (8) essential missions which further the work of the Church in our part of the vineyard. A new report – May 19 - has come in, so I refer you to it elsewhere in this Bulletin. Please see our parish website and Facebook page for a link to the 2025 ACA video. You will also find the QR code included in this Bulletin to make an electronic pledge.

May God bless you all. -- Msgr. Hoppe

Desde el escritorio del pastor

Hoy es el sexto domingo del Tiempo de Pascua. En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús dice: «El que me ama cumplirá mis palabras, y mi Padre lo amará, y haremos nuestra morada en él... No se turben ni tengan miedo». Debo decir que estas palabras de Jesús me reconfortan mucho. Jesús y su Padre me aman y desean pasar tiempo conmigo, ¡y contigo! Reflexionemos sobre cómo esta verdad ha impactado nuestras vidas.

El Papa León XIV celebró su Misa Inaugural en San Pedro el domingo pasado. Comparto con ustedes las palabras finales de su breve homilía: «Con la luz y la fuerza del Espíritu Santo, construyemos una Iglesia fundada en el amor de Dios, signo de unidad, una Iglesia misionera que abra sus brazos al mundo, proclame la palabra, se deje inquietar por la historia y se convierta en fermento de armonía para la humanidad. Juntos, como un solo pueblo, como hermanos y hermanas, caminemos hacia Dios y amémonos unos a otros». Que Dios bendiga a nuestro nuevo Papa con santidad, salud y fortaleza para su singular ministerio como pastor principal de la Iglesia.

También el domingo pasado, nuestra escuela celebró su centenario con una misa oficiada por nuestro obispo, Robert Brennan, y una agradable cena aquí mismo en el auditorio/gimnasio. El obispo bendijo el nuevo laboratorio STEM de la escuela y nos acompañó en la cena y el entretenimiento y las actividades extra que completaron el programa. Nuestros invitados especiales, además del Obispo, fueron miembros de las Monjas Grises del Sagrado Corazón, quienes hicieron un largo viaje desde Pensilvania para estar con nosotros. Monseñor John McGuirl, expárroco, estuvo entre los invitados, al igual que el recién nombrado párroco, el Padre Christopher Heanue. Definitivamente, fue una tarde maravillosa. Mi más sincero agradecimiento a la Sra. Mosejczuk, Directora Extraordinaria, por coordinar todos los elementos.

El jueves pasado, comenzamos las oraciones de la Novena a Santa Juana de Arco, patrona de nuestra parroquia, antes de celebrar su festividad el viernes 30 de mayo. Celebraremos nuestra fe compartida con la misa de las 6:00 p. m., y una cena-baile en nuestro auditorio-gimnasio, que lleva el nombre de nuestro segundo párroco, Monseñor John S. Boylan. Traigan sus zapatos de baile. Nos sentimos honrados de tener al Obispo Neil Tiedemann como celebrante principal de nuestra Misa especial.

Repito lo que escribí el domingo pasado. Por favor, apoyen la Campaña Católica Anual 2025. ¿Cómo? Con sus oraciones y una generosa donación. Esta campaña diocesana anual financia ocho (8) misiones esenciales que impulsan la obra de la Iglesia en nuestra viña. Ya llegó un nuevo informe, el 19 de mayo, así que los remito a él en otra parte de este Boletín. Por favor, visiten el sitio web de nuestra parroquia y nuestra página de Facebook para obtener el enlace al video de la Campaña Católica Anual 2025. También encontrarán el código QR incluido en este Boletín para hacer una donación electrónica. Que Dios los bendiga a todos. -- Mons. Hoppe

MUSIC MINISTRY

Music is a very important element in our public prayer, and especially our celebration of the sacred mysteries, such as the Mass. Here at St. Joan of Arc, we pray in two (sometimes three) languages: English and Spanish (sometimes Tagalog). To help us pray, we have purchased new missalettes and new hymnals (bilingual) Unidos en Cristo / United in Christ. They are published by Oregon Catholic Press (OCP) and are used in quite a few parishes here in our diocese and around the country. We will start to use them in Holy Week, and they will replace our current worship aids. Because they are meant to be used together, we have agreed to purchase vinyl covers that permit both books to be in one "package." That package must remain in the churches (up and down) for our communal use. Quality comes at a price, and so we are asking you, our faithful parishioners and friends, to make a free-will offering to help offset the cost of this upgrade to our public prayer aids. Donations (in an envelope with your name/address so we can thank you) can be dropped off at the Rectoría or given to a priest, deacon, parish usher or sacristan. Thank you and God bless you. - Msr. Hoppe

We appreciate generous donations from more donors:
Maryann Cadiz, Familia Gavilanez Yungasaca, Geraldine O'Connor, Anonymous donor
